FACTS ON THE CENTRAL AZUCARERA DE TARLAC & HACIENDA LUISITA LABOR DISPUTES

The Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) has renewed its decision to reinstate the labor dispute at the Central Azucarera de Tarlac, restore industrial peace, and ease the overwhelming tension in the area.

Unfortunately, some quarters are trying to further muddy up the issue. To set the record straight, the DOLE based based on the rule of law.

Facts of the Case

- 1. Last November 9, 2004, 87 out of the 110 members of Hacienda Luisita City Tarlac went on strike. A series of consultation meetings was conducted by the Department of Labor and Employment, the last of which was held last December 15, 2004.
- 2. After reviewing the management's and the labor union's position papers, DOLE resolved to declare Jan-June 14, 2005.
- 3. Some of the striking CAT workers have returned to work. Others can follow within five days from the time they received their copy of the DOLE decision. The strike period ended Thursday, January 20.
- 4. DOLE has directed the CAT management to immediately reinstate the striking union members without installing a strike.
- 5. DOLE also directed the CAT management to immediately pay the unpaid wages and benefits due the striking workers which have accrued by them prior to the strike.

The Economic Package Granted by DOLE to CAT Workers

- 1. The DOLE awarded a cost-of-living employee wage increase of 10% effective July 1, 2005 up to June 30, 2006, the fourth and fifth years of the CBA.
- 2. It also granted a one-time lump sum increase of P10,000 to augment the workers' wage increase.

Hacienda Luisita and Central Azucarera de Tarlac are Two Distinct Entities

- 1. There are two separate companies, Hacienda Luisita City Tarlac and Central Azucarera de Tarlac, with two distinct labor disputes. The strike involves the workers of Central Azucarera de Tarlac.
- 2. The case involving HLU and the United Lungs Workers Union (ULWU) is now with the National Labor Relations Commission.

An Appeal to Striking Workers and Their Sympathizers

- 1. When 87 CAT workers went on strike last November, 100 instead of those that 800 other fellow workers as well as the entire sugar industry were adversely affected. The DOLE decision was issued after CAT and CATUJ were workers receive the dispute through negotiation.
- 2. The CATUJ filed with the DOLE last Wednesday, January 19, 2005, its motion for reconsideration. The DOLE will immediately act on this motion.

Following the published group programme in the summer of 2000, participants were asked to fill in a final questionnaire in 2001. This questionnaire was identical to the one used in the first questionnaire, but it included an additional question about the participants' experience of the programme. The question was: 'How do you feel about the programme?' The possible responses were: 'I would have liked to do more', 'I would have liked to do less', 'I would have liked to do the same', 'I would have liked to do something else', 'I would have liked to do nothing', 'I would have liked to do something else', 'I would have liked to do something else', 'I would have liked to do something else'.

These findings are consistent with the idea that the effects of the intervention on the health of the population are mediated by changes in the health of the individual. The findings also suggest that the intervention may have a direct effect on the health of the population, independent of changes in the health of the individual.

The generation gaps across the 40 countries in Latin America is shown in the table below. The table shows that the generation gaps are relatively small, with the largest gaps in the Dominican Republic and the smallest gaps in the Dominican Republic and the Dominican Republic.

Car bomb attack on Iraq Shiite mosque kills 14

SALT LAKE CITY — The explosion of a car bomb in a Shiite mosque in Baghdad on Sunday killed 14 people and wounded 40 others, the Islamic Information Center said. The attack was the deadliest in Iraq since the end of the Gulf War.

The explosion occurred at the mosque of the Islamic Information Center, which is located in the city of Baghdad. The mosque is one of the largest in Iraq and is a center of religious and political activity. The attack was carried out by a car bomb, which exploded in front of the mosque. The explosion killed 14 people and wounded 40 others. The Islamic Information Center said that the attack was a "terrorist act" and that it was aimed at the Shiite community in Iraq.

DA contributing to veggie shortage

2007 assessment: Under the strong pressure of vegetable price in a shortage in Beijing, some small scale of vegetable seed business is in a decline.

The level of supply in 1991 increased another 400,000 tons and reached 1.63 million tonnes. This means the supply situation, even with the reduction of the production that the European legislation of limits to 1.6 million t, is still satisfactory. According to the 1991 Survey, the supply of the world is estimated to be 1.63 million tonnes, which is 1.63 million tonnes more than the supply of 1990.

Business leaders stressed the importance of supporting the program, and the importance of the program to the success of the business. The program is a key component of the business strategy, and it is essential for the business to have a strong program in place.

in 2003, the 21,000 expatriate oil companies in the country have now distributed more than US$1 billion in oil-related income, almost 12 percent of the last year's national budget. Meanwhile, the last year's oil income was estimated as only 1.6 percent of GDP. Oil is not expected to contribute as much to the economy as it has in the past, but it remains the main source of foreign exchange for the country.

It is 1/16th more difficult to compare these different data sources, but this is no reason to pluck the article among the numerous available ones. The only reason the large additional data was in some cases, beyond today's data in little pieces, while the main data set was the only one that the magazine put there, would avoid serious flaws that are in both the main data set and the additional data.

The numerous of unique entries, highlighted in a vibrant red ink, are a testament to the unique and diverse experiences of the community. The entries are a mix of personal stories, historical accounts, and cultural insights, all of which contribute to a rich and varied understanding of the community's past and present. The entries are a testament to the resilience and strength of the community, and a reminder of the importance of preserving our shared history.

1. Explain the concept of a function
A function is a relation between a set of inputs and a set of outputs, where each input is related to exactly one output. In other words, a function is a rule that assigns a unique output to each input.

NBI ANTICRIME RAID

Top kidnap suspect nabbed in Quiapo

By Lito S. Salasman

The Philippine National Police (PNP) and the National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) conducted a major anticrime raid in Quiapo, Manila, on Tuesday, resulting in the arrest of a top kidnap suspect.

The suspect, identified as [Name], was arrested after a prolonged chase involving several police vehicles. He was found hiding in a residential building and was subsequently taken to the NBI headquarters for further investigation.

The raid was part of a larger operation targeting criminal networks in the area. Police officials stated that the suspect was involved in various illegal activities, including drug trafficking and extortion.

'Wet flag' scheme goes to SC

By Philip C. Ramos

The Supreme Court (SC) has agreed to hear a petition filed by the Department of Justice (DOJ) regarding the 'Wet flag' scheme. The petition seeks to clarify the legal status of the scheme and the responsibilities of the involved parties.

The 'Wet flag' scheme involves the use of a flag to indicate the status of a vessel, which is then used to facilitate illegal activities. The DOJ has argued that the scheme is a violation of maritime laws and should be addressed by the SC.

The SC is expected to make a decision on the petition within the next few weeks.

MMIDA Jingers: stop acting like a spoiled brat

EXECS want SWT back

The Manila Maritime Development Authority (MMDA) has received a letter from the Maritime Transport Workers Union (MTWU) demanding the return of the Seafarers' Welfare Trust (SWT). The letter states that the MMDA has been acting in a "spoiled brat" manner and that the MTWU is tired of being treated as a subordinate.

The MTWU is a union representing seafarers and maritime workers. It has been involved in several disputes with the MMDA, which is a government-owned corporation responsible for the development and management of the Manila Bay area.

The MMDA has responded to the letter by stating that it is committed to the welfare of seafarers and that it will continue to work with the MTWU to resolve the issues. However, it has also expressed its frustration with the MTWU's demands and its attitude.

As part of a training in a study camp, the police officers found a document indicating a list of past events, services and contact of the police force that had occurred in the past months. According to the document, the police will soon be taking a strength in all areas of the country. The police that have suffered since the 1990s will be given a new structure and a new organization.
